EXHIBIT A

DEFINITIONS

Fire Restrictions

CAMPFIRE: Campfires are open fires, usually built on the ground, from native fuels; charcoal, including charcoal grills, that are used for cooking, warming, esthetics, or branding.

DEVELOPED RECREATION SITE: An area which has been improved or developed for recreation. A developed recreation site is signed as a Forest Service campground or picnic area and identified on a Forest Service map as a site developed for that purpose.

DESIGNATED AREA: A geographic area defined by the Forest Service which is identified on the ground by posted notices.

PERMIT: A written document issued by an authorized officer of the Forest Service to specifically authorize an otherwise prohibited act.

DESIGNATED ROADS AND TRAILS: Those National Forest System roads and National Forest System trails which are identified and/or otherwise described on maps regularly provided to the public by Land Management agencies.

For further definitions or clarification of definitions, refer to Title 36 Code of Federal Regulations 261.2.
